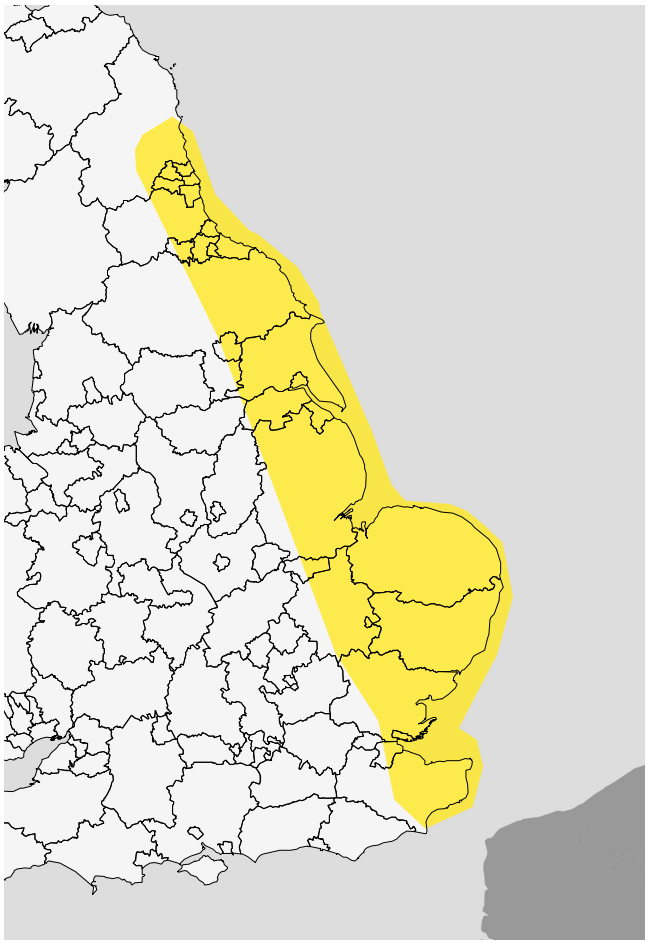
Yellow warning
Ice

Between
16:00 Wed 6 Jan 2021 and
10:00 Thu 7 Jan 2021



Icy surfaces leading to difficult travel conditions in places.

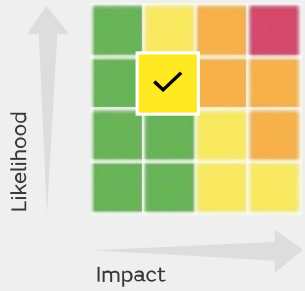
What to expect

- Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces
- Probably some icy patches on untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths

Further details

Further showers are likely on Wednesday evening and overnight, before becoming confined to East Anglia on Thursday morning. As ground temperatures fall below freezing there is the likelihood of ice forming on some untreated surfaces.

Some of the showers may be wintry inland but the chance of any more than isolated very small accumulations of snow is very low.



Medium likelihood of low impacts

Issued at 10:35 Wed 6 Jan, 2021
